BAY LEAGUE STANDINGS

With Torrance High School Varsity's recent cage victories over Leuzinger and El Segundo, the local basketballers moved into a three-way tie for third place as the first round of the Bay League schedule wound up Tuesday, Jan. 27.

All tled up in the third place are Torrance, Redondo and Inglewood.

Leading the league race with a clean slate is Santa Monica with seven victories. Trailing the Samohis is Beverly Hills, who has lost only one game, and that to Santa Monica.

El Segundo, Leuzinger and Jordan are all flighting to keep out of the cellar. Each has won two while dropping five. Santa Monica could easily be knocked from the league lead in the second round as they will lose their star center, six-foot two-inch Bob McCoy, who has averaged close to 18 points per game. McCoy graduates this week.

However, Torrance's chance
